5	ESUH V. UDDI	We want to move Ndokwa nation forward. We do not wish to continue having delegates of personel interest only. We need representatives who will bring development to our nation - Ndokwa.
6	Anonymous	Mercy Almona-Ishei and Christopher Ochor Ochor are wicked and all ukwuani people should avoid them.
7	John Odebo	Both Mercy Almona and Ochor Ochor should know that they are not bigger that the whole of Ndokwa/Ukwani they are depriving or representation in Government. They should also know that there is life after politics. What legacy are they leaving for thier Children? Such act is rather unfortunate.

9	GABRIEL OSSAI
10	Anonymous	This is a sign that we need a positive change that will ursher in good representation for the whole of Ndokwa nation. It is an eye opener to other sit tight Ndokwa politicians who are merely representing their purse at all levels of governance.
11	Osaneku Ifeanyi	Disregard
12	Charles Imala	If the appropriate courts have declared Ojo & Ochor winners then they should be sworn in
13	Ojugbeli Abel	The two persons, that is, Mercy Almona-Isei and Christopher Ochor Ochor should honourably obey the Court order and allow the two new people to take over their positions.
14	Martin Ijomor	It is tragic that a few individuals would insist on holding the Ndokwa nation hostage. Regardless of their inimical support base, it will be advisable for them to abandon ship while the tide is still gathering storm.
15	Keolise Ebogbue	I just think that it is fair to have a Representation for Ndokwa/Ukwuani indigenes of Delta State at the House of Representatives

19	Henry Okechukwu	Ndokwa needs guine representation not stooges teleguided from outside.People should stop taken Ndokwa notion for granted-Court Deciscion should be Obeyed.There is and unease calm in Ndokw Land-If it Explodes,it will be difcult to contain
20	Benson Ijomoh
21	Jessica Amajali
22	Dr. Aisha Nonye Obodoeke	I urge Hon. Speaker Bankole, Fed House and Okonta of Delta State to uphold the rule of law and obey Court Orders. Bankole should swear in Chief Onyekweli and Okonta should swear in Dr. Ojo, NOW. God Bless Nigeria.
23	Chief Echinei J. Oshionwu PhD
24	IKE FELIX O	The decision of the court should be respected and reason should prevail. The Ndokwa nation should come first before any single individual

25	James Okubor	Mercy should go we have had enough of her and Ochor Ochor should also accept the defeat and allow Dr. Ojo to take the House Membership
26	Emmanuel OSUGBA
27	ISHIE HAPPY	POWER COMES FROM GOD, FOLLOWING COURT DECLARATION AND AS A NATION OBEYING RULE OF LAW, No nigerian citizen is above the law.
28	francis agagaraga	we must put an end to this political lockjam in Ndokwaland
29	Anonymous	Please swear in Chief Charles Onyekweli and Dr. Alphonsus Ojo.
30	Tony Onyema	The speakers of both Houses of Reps and Delta Assembly should respect court decisions and swear in Mr Onyekweli in Abuja and Dr Ojo in Asaba immediately in respect of the Court of Appeal decisions in Benin. they should stop playing politics with the people of Ndokwa for selfish, personal reasons
31	Patrick E. Oni
32	Ignatius Onwuka	Swear in Onyekweli and Ojo now. We have suffered enough as a result of misrepresentation. Obey the voice of the people, for it is the voice of God.
33	OLISE David	They should please not deny Ukwani Nation a fair representation at the house. They should please allow Ukwani Nation to move forward.
34	Okenmor Tilije	These two Speakers are clearly playing GOD and Man.
35	Osuya m .Jethro	With the formation of this Ndokwa web and email interaction Ukwani and Ndokwa will be in unity as time goes on
36	Kenneth Iwebema
37	Anonymous	Swear in Onyekweli and Ojo NOW!

44	Anonymous	I want all for the effort towards this struggle,i thank God for the unity and i pray it will continue, because Mercy,Osakwe and the rest think that Leadership in Ndokwaland is their birth right. Ones again thanks for all those that have supported this project both financially and otherwise.
45	O.J Ejechi	We need better representations and no form of antics aimed at denying us representation is acceptable. Those that have been defeated through litigation processes should accept defeat galantly and give peace a chance. By doggedly fighting to impede democratic representation our people is despicable and a slap on the face of Ndokwa people.

51	kester Akpati	The Ndokwa nation is bigger than few individuals. For the good of all, we should give peace a chance. Posterity always has a way of reminding us the opportunities we missed. its always very painful when we realize we can never turn the hands of time to right the wrong of yester years. Listen to your conscience
52	Oxley Kwene	Get rid of these greedy, unelected, selfish politicians and swear in the new ones. Obey the court of appeal decision.

62	Charles O. Ogbuta	Ndokwa/Ukwuani marginalization is real and it is time to wake up and tell our oppressors enough is enough.
63	Anonymous
64	Sam Ujukwu
65	Mr Bright Ozegbe	Mercy has not delivered on any promise and she has no business representing our people. I a proper election she cannot win in her ward.
66	Ms Ebele Okonye
67	Achi Olisedumbiri
68	KENNETH EJECHI	Mrs. Mercy Almona-Isei should abide by the court order to step down for the winner Chief Charles Onyekweli . And Christopher Ochor Ochor should act in the manner by accepting defeat so that Dr. Alphonsus Ojo can represent his people .
69	Engr. Ododo Chris	Mrs. Mercy Almona-Isei is the greatest dis-service done to the Ndokwa Nation by the Delta PDP cabal since the past 9 years. Mr. Osakwe Alias Evidence has recorded a minus even when he had opportunity with Gerry Useni to help her people. BUT THERE IS A TIME & SEASON FOR EVERYTHING ON EARTH, including political and seeming mighty power & connections

78	ANINZE, TONY	None
79	Oyemike Christopher	I don't entirely subscribe to the idea that Hon. Mercy Almona Isei did not perform but I also think that with the kind of influence she wielded in the State house during her tenure (s), she ought to have performed better.
80	Clement Ubaru	"Measurable development is seen, felt and not imagined". It is quite obvious that the present crop of our representatives are absolutely out of touch with the people but there is no assurance however that the perceived winners in the last election will move us up north. The difference between them and the failed crop is like the difference between 25th of December and Christmas day. Absolutely no difference, period!
81	Emmanuel Ekele
82	Olokume I. Ben	They should stop killing Ndokwa/Ukwuani time with their so call court actions. They should please leaving Ndokwa/Ukwuani alone.
83	Anonymous
84	Anthony Ishiekwene	Swear in Appeal court winners immediately as non-compliance shows contempt for the courts and the Ndokwa people
85	Paul Nwanwene	The judgment of the court of Appeal is above every personal interest in an electoral matter of this type, and therefore should be obeyed.
86	Anonymous	none

88	Ifeanyi Chegwe
89	Anonymous	The House up-hold the Rule of Law and swear in the rightful candidates, thus respecting the constitution of the Federal Republic of Nigeria.
90	Ozuem Cletus Ekele Chidi	Our representatives in the Nation Assembly are more or less a disgrace to Ndokwa Nation.
91	Anonymous	My interest in this is to have a representative at both levels for my people who has the interest of the masses at heart.
92	Federated Union of Ndokwa Students	Almon-Isei must go but Onyekweli should step up his game...Ochor and Ojo are kins and should settle out of court.
93	Anonymous
94	Otukegwu J.D	The woman should come back home because her being there is of no use for us. She also representing her pocket and not the people of Ukwani L.G.A.
95	Anonymous
96	Hyscent Ike Olise	Let the authorities that be at the Federal House of Representatives, Abuja and the Delta State House of Assembly abide by the rule of law and obey Court Orders.
97	BEDFORD OKEI
98	Eddie B. Onwubolu	These guys are still behind with their non-acceptance of defeat. Once you are non-performer, the chances are that your people will reject you!. Just go in style!!.
99	Bridget Chukwura
100	Igwebike B. Olokume	Their time is over they should go

102	Dr P Opkuzor	I am aware that Almona-Isei as not been a good representative, however I still believe that Ndokwa should have a solid representation in the senate at least 1if not more. I am not very familiar of the situation with Christopher Ochor
103	Anonymous	Mercy has held Ukwuani and Ndokwa nation to ransome for too long and should be made to disappear in the olitical arena of our locality and nation for us to move forward.
104	Sam OliseOputa	Deal with the issues
105	Anonymous	They should try high level dialogue to resolve the issues. The none representation in the houses are our own making and the individual greed of our politicians.
106	S.A. Omuku
107	Ernest Uti	Hon. Mercy Almona-Isei should stand down. We need change. She has not performed in the 9 years that she has been there. Ochor Chris Ochor has no business representing Ukwuani LGA at the DTHA. He has been made a commissioner and that which is supposed to be an added advantage to Ukwuani LGA is now a problem.
108	EMEKE AJEH	Let Ndokwa be represented in the House of Reps. and Assembly respectively. Swear in Onyekweli and Ojo.
109	Mr. Patrick Onyenike	What is Ochors own. He has been made a commissioner. If he has the interest of Ukwuani at heart he should impress on his urhobo brothers to swear in a true ukwuani son.
110	Harrison Ogbolu	Let the rule of law be respected
111	OSONDU, RAYMOND	These people have served too long and we need a change
112	Uba Nwose

118	FRANCIS OBI
119	Lugard Ojeh	If anything the winners of their cases in the Appeal court in Benin City should be sworn in. Both the Speakers of the House of Reps, Dimeji Bankole, and his Delta State House of Assembly counterpart should stop playing dirty politics and do the right thing. After all the winners and the losers are all members of the "ruling" party- the PDP.
